

Profile of the Department (Hindi Department)

1. About the Department:

Hindi Department was initiated in the year July 1963 along with the establishment of the Institution. Hindi is M.I.L. and Advanced for H.S. and B.A. Program. Currently two faculty members are in the department. The UG curriculum of the department is based on semester system and CBCS system.

Though it is difficult to motivate students as most of them are from Non Hindi speaking background, the department has succeeded to attract more and more students. Our students publish Wall Magazine viz. "DEEPSHIKHA" edited by the students under the guidance of the faculty members.

2. Vision of the Department: To impart knowledge of National language Hindi and official language of India, its literature and functional Hindi to Non-Hindi speaking students through innovative methods in teaching, learning and evaluation.

3. Mission of the Department: To give students an understanding of Hindi literature and to help them achieve a standard level of communication in Hindi which is ideal for everyday life.

4. Message from the HOD: Greetings from the Department of Hindi.

It is my privilege to lead a Department which has, for more than five decades, played a very significant role in helping generations of young women in the North-eastern state of the country to achieve a level of practical communication in the National and Official language-Hindi, which is ideal for everyday life . Since its inception, the Department is privileged to have an extremely dynamic faculty whose expertise in critical theory has been widely acknowledged and whose creative writing has been published extensively. We are a department that takes our teaching and research missions seriously, and we strongly believe that good teaching and research go hand in hand. We strive to enhance the ability of our students to communicate in Hindi and also to apply Hindi to work or further studies.
