One-day workshop on Professional Ethics was organized by IQAC, MDKG College, Dibrugarh on 27th April,2023. The programme was inaugurated by honourable Principal, MDKG College Dr.NibeditaPhukan and welcome address was delivered by the Coordinator, IQAC Dr. Utpal Sut. Dr Himadri Barman, Assistant Professor and BBA Programme Coordinator,Centre for Management Studies, Dibrugarh University graced the occasion as the resource person for this one day workshop. The workshop comprises three technical sessions and around 80 teaching and non-teaching stuffs of different colleges had participated in the programme.In the first technical session, Dr. Barmandiscusses various issues about the importance of ethics in academic institutions. He has enlightened us with the knowledge about some code of conduct which is needed to maintain some standard in different circumstances. The second technical session was about practicing ethics in teaching and research. In her enlightening speech, he talked about setting some ground rules for ethical behaviour, such as trying to stick to the time, not taking advantage of the professional relationship with students for private gain, etc. He also gave importance to research and publication ethics. Plagiarism is considered unethical and it can take various forms such as simultaneous submission, duplicate submission, salami slicing, non- disclosure of safety procedures, conflict of interest while doing research, data fabrication,etc. In the third and the last technical session, he talked about the code of ethics for academicians and how it is reinforced and supplemented by a code of conduct. . He shared many real life experiences in between the lecture which made the session more interesting. At the end, he also discussed about social media code of conduct and as an academician, we must follow some code of conduct while using it. The session comes to an end with vote of thanks by Dr.Rezia Laskar.The event was a great success and it was a great learning experience for each and every participant present there.
