

Proceedings of the IQAC Programme on draft of National Education Policy

Date: 29-10-2019

A workshop on draft of National Education Policy, 2019 was held 29th October, 2019 in room no.1 at MDKG College, Dibrugarh, Assam. The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. Nibedita Phukan, Principal of MDKG College. At the beginning the objective of holding the workshop was stated by Dr. Utpal Sut, Coordinator of IQAC of the College. Dr. Dilip Kumar Bhuyan, Former Principal of MDKG College delivered speech as resource person in the workshop. Dr. Bhuyan covered different aspects of draft of National education policy such as transformation of education system for facilitating national development, transforming assessment for student development, effective teacher recruitment development, professional standards for teachers, equitable and inclusive education, continuous professional development, a new forward looking vision of higher education, institutional research and consolidation, optimal learning environment and supports for students. Energised, engaged and capable faculty for excellence in teaching and research. Dr. Bhuyan cleared the doubts as raised by the participants. The programme was ended by the vote of thanks offered by Dr. Utpal Sut to all the persons engaged with the programme.

